DISTINCTIVE HAND-SCULPTED EDGE

Early Southern architecture paid fine attention to detail. Precise craftsmanship allowed homes to be strong and durable while still having an elegant, charming appeal. They had a look and quality that set them apart from other architectural styles. But as the mass production of homes began, many of these early Southern architectural values were lost...until today! Cambridge Beaded Premium Vinyl Siding brings together all the elements of early Southern architecture, while adding modern technology to ensure the strongest protection and least maintenance of any exterior siding material.

- LOW GLOSS, BRUSHED FINISH—replicates the natural beauty of painted wood.
- LOW-MAINTENANCE EXTERIOR—never needs to be scraped, sanded or painted, saving you time and money.
